

Ryszard Stemplowski

Zrzeszenie Studentów Polskich w socjalizmie państwowym 1950-1973,
Wydanie nowe, Wydawnictwo Naukowe Scholar, Warszawa 2020, 483 s.

ISBN 978-83-66470-24-8

New Edition in Polish

The Polish Students' Association under State Socialism 1950-1973

Table of Contents

An Introduction to the New Edition

An Introduction (First Edition, 2018)

Chapter 1. The problem, and the principal thesis

1.1. The Problem

1.2. The principal thesis

Chapter 2. ZSP – a student association and the State

2.1. Establishing the ZSP

2.2. The identity of a person pending her studies, and the subjectivity of the ZSP

2.3. The supposed [statutory] functions of the ZSP

2.4. The ZSP in Polish political culture

2.5. The PZPR's state-socialism

2.6. The world system

Chapter 3. The functions of the ZSP in its organizational practice

3.1. The socio-professional ZSP on the side of the ideological-political ZMP (1950-1955/1956)

3.2. Activity height of the ZSP, 1956/1957-1968/1973

3.2.1. Some data on the activities in the fields of students' economic, and of the finances-maintenance-investments matters

3.2.2. Some data on the activities in the field of tourism and recreation

3.2.3. Some data on the activities in the fields of art, culture and entertainment

3.2.4. Some data on the activities in the fields of learning

3.3.5. Some data on the activities in the field of student foreign affairs

3.3.6. Some data on the activities in the fields of pro-socialistic propaganda, and of the ZSP publicity

3.3.7. Some data on the activities in the field of the ZSP home affairs

Chapter 4. The political system dysfunctionality of the ZSP and its liquidation

- 4.1. Stagnation, the March '68 crisis, a lawful lowering of the ZSP disposition (1968)
- 4.2. Self-government and self-governance
- 4.3. The ZSP liquidation under the 'ideal leadership' of the PZPR, 1965-1973
- 4.4. After the liquidation, on the liquidation
- 4.5. Legal aspects of the decisions re liquidation

Chapter 5. The ZSP under the 'ideal leadership' of the PZPR

- 5.1. The 'ideal leadership' of the PZPR, ZSP self-governance, independence (and dependence) of the ZSP, and its particular functions
- 5.2. The 'ideal leadership' of the PZPR and the cumulative actual function of the ZSP

Conclusions

EPILOGUE

Bibliography

ADDENDUM

1. FUA and the Reforma Universitaria (1918)
2. UNEF and the Charte de Grenoble (1946)
3. USNSA and the Bill of Rights (1947)
4. Resolution of the Congress of the Polish Students, 17 April, 1950, on the Establishment of the Polish Students' Association
5. Andrzej Micewski's speech (excerpts), Congress of the Polish Students, 17 April, 1950
6. The Declaration of the Student Movement, 28 March, 1968
7. Irena Halak, Konrad Bieliński, Jacek Santorski, Tadeusz Szawiel, More on student organizations („Kultura”, Paris, 1973, no. 10)
8. The ZSP principal bodies. Presidia of the Principal Council (1950-1957), Executive Committees of the Principal Council (1957-1973), the chairmen of the Principal Auditing Commission (1950-1973), and the chairmen of the Collegiate Principal Court (1957-1973).

List of duplicates, drawings and tables

Duplicate 1. Address of the Federation of the Polish Student Organizations “To the Students – the Women and the Men – of the Peoples Poland”

Duplicate 2. The five theses of Stemplowski (Executive Committee of the Principal Council, sitting, 10 March, 1968)

Duplicate 3. Minutes (nr 69/68) from the Executive Committee of the Principal Council sitting, 10 March 1968

Drawing 1. The actual function of the ZSP (1950/1956 – 1968/1973)

Drawing 2. The ZSP in the PRL [Polish Peoples Republic]

Drawing 3. The identity of a person pending university studies

Drawing 4. The International Student Conference and the International Union of Students drawing its membership from the countries in a world-systemic arrangement

Drawing 5. Hypothetical proportions of the ZSP functions on the X time-axis.

Table 1. Number of higher education establishments, students, graduates (M.A., M.Sc.), and teaching-and-research staff, 1937... 1973.

Index